Good morning!

I would like to invite you to a really interesting presentation and discussion titled "Hidden Spaces of Hate" featuring Dr. Peter Simi. Dr. Simi is an expert on far-right extremism in the U.S. His bio can be found here. This lecture and discussion is being presented jointly by the Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority's Targeted Violence Prevention Program and Loyola University Chicago's Center for Criminal Justice Research, Policy and Practice and the School of Social Work. The event is being co-sponsored by the Muslim Bar Association of Chicago, the Decalogue Society of Lawyers, and the Hispanic Lawyers Association of Illinois. All of the relevant details are noted in the attached flyer. Please let me know individually (please do not "Reply All") to let me know if you can join us.

We will be holding a similar lecture and discussion in Elgin, IL that same day in the evening; if that might be more convenient for you then please reach out and I'll get you information on that event.

Sincerely,

Junaid

Please see the forwarded email below for details. The presenters will address a program overview, mental health and social issues, addressing the Islamic narrative, and bystander training.

The agenda, the presenters' bios, and the current RSVP list of attendees are attached. I encourage interfaith community leaders, representatives from public and private schools, junior colleges, universities, communitybased organizations, representatives from local and state government, and others interested in preventing ideologically inspired targeted violence in our communities to come hear this presentation. You may share this invitation with others, but please be certain to emphasize that an RSVP is required. RSVP to
